
CALL FOR BLOGS: NLUO'S CENTRE FOR POVERT AND ACCESS TO JUSTICE

About the Organizers

The Centre for Poverty and Access to Justice was established in the year 2020 with an aim to minimize and mitigate the obstacles faced by the socially and economically disadvantaged people in accessing justice.

About the Blog

The NLUO CPAJ Blog invites submission from students, legal professionals and practitioners. The centre's key themes are: Poverty, Social exclusion, Inequality, Traditional or Community Justice System and Access to Justice. The aim is to study the scope, conflict & overlap in the formal and informal mechanisms of justice and challenges to the informal justice systems, thus, broadening the scope of justice's access for all belonging to marginalized backgrounds and areas. The centre welcomes submissions on all topics surrounding the theme of the centre.

Submission Guidelines

1. The word limit for the manuscripts is between 1000-2000 words (excluding footnotes).
2. All submissions must be in Times New Roman, font size 12 and Spacing 1.5.
3. Co-authorship of a maximum of 2 is permitted.
4. Citation format should be OSCOLA.
5. All entries should be submitted in .doc or .docx format.
6. The entries must be original, unpublished and an outcome of the author's own efforts. Plagiarism will lead to disqualification of the manuscripts.

Submission Details

The submissions must be made by sending an email to cpaj@nluo.ac.in, the subject of the mail should read 'CPAJ, Submission for BLOG'. The submissions will be accepted till October 31, 2020.

Contact Information

If any contributor needs any guidance with regards to the blog, feel free to write to cpaj@nluo.ac.in