for Edited Volume

on

“Contemporary issues on the laws of Insolvency and Bankruptcy”

Centre for Corporate Law, National Law University Odisha (hereinafter “CCL, NLUO”) proposes to come up with an edited volume with a multi-disciplinary approach on the “Contemporary issues on the laws of Insolvency and Bankruptcy”.

OBJECTIVE

The Insolvency and Bankruptcy (hereinafter “I&B”) Code was enacted with the aim to bolster the credit and capital markets in India. Similarly, through this initiative, the CCL, NLUO wishes to bolster research and contribute to the literature on the said subject by engaging Academicians, Professionals and Research Scholars researching and working in the field of I&B.

ABOUT THE EDITED BOOK

The Edited Volume will encompass several chapters thematically pertinent to the contemporary issues in the field of I&B. The submissions can be made in accordance with the following suggestive themes:

- Interplay of statutory dues and the Indian insolvency regime: An undue advantage?
- Insolvency in the Aviation Industry: Need of a separate legislation?
- Evolution of Moratorium under Section 14 of IBC: Empowered?
- Pre-Package Insolvency
- Avoidable Transactions under IBC, 2016
- Nexus between M&A and IBC, 2016
- Guarantors liability under IBC, 2016
- Group Insolvency in Indian Insolvency Regime
- Reverse Piercing of Corporate Veil: How does it supports the present Insolvency Regime?
- Settlement Agreements under IBC: Way out?
- Foreign Investment Instruments and IBC 2016
- Insolvency of RBI regulated entities in light of the recent DHFL saga
- Interplay between IBC and other legislations

However, the contributors shall not be restricted to the above-mentioned themes and are open to submit book chapters under the theme “Contemporary issues on the laws of Insolvency and Bankruptcy”.

Number of Chapters to be published shall be subject to the number of submissions, however, at least 5 chapters is a minimum number to be published on the said theme.

ABOUT THE CENTRE:

The CCL, NLUO as it is called, is an initiative of National Law University Odisha, Cuttack to promote interdisciplinary research in corporate law, and related fields like insolvency, commercial arbitration, securities, competition law, etc. The CCL, NLUO aims at creating an effective platform of discussion and discourse on latest issues and challenges in corporate law and related areas to come up with logical solutions and create awareness among the law students and the academia about the same. In furtherance of the objectives, CCL, NLUO has launched the “CCL Blog – Corporate Law Blog”. This would help bolster research within academia while simultaneously providing them with content abreast of updated information and analysis.
